SONOMA VALLEY IMPROVEMENT CLUB TO BUY FIRE ENGINE

Demonstration of Waterous Pump and Chemical Held Last Sunday at Fetters Springs.

With 100 members already enrolled the new Sonoma Valley Improvement Club of Fetters Springs has set out to acquire a fire engine. There was an enthusiastic meeting at Fetters Springs Theatre Tuesday night to discuss ways and means to raise money.

The demonstration Sunday of the Waterous fire engine which the people in the vicinity of Fetters and Calienta Park contemplated purchasing was highly successful. The engine, which is one like Sonoma City owns, was connected up to the Fetters Springs swimming tank, a hole having been cut through the bath house and the suction pipe of the engine dropped into the water. Four streams thrown high in the air and directed against a fire which was instantly extinguished proved the efficiency of the pump. Later the chemical was also given a satisfactory test. A large crowd witnessed the try-out under the direction of J. H. Lashbrooke, Pacific Coast representative of the Waterous.

The Sonoma Valley Improvement Club aided by Mr. and Mrs. George Fetters who are anxious for the protection of their hotel, theatre and other buildings, are to finance the purchase of the fire engine. The Fetters have donated a lot adjoining the Valley of the Moon Garage for a fire house. Entertainments, dances, minstrel show and other benefit affairs will be given to raise money for the initial payment. Here is the enthusiastic report of Sunday's demonstration and the performance of the Waterous as sent in by Secretary Perkins of the Club:

As per schedule, the fire engine demonstration took place at the Fetters bath house. The Caliente, Fetters crew, consisting of Jay Hilliard, Jack Muller, Wm. Cohen and Chas. Perkins, drove the engine about the Valley prior to the demonstration. It won admiration wherever the boys went. A stop was made in Glen Ellen where the citizens readily agreed that such an apparatus would give them adequate protection.

The engine is a twin machine to Sonoma's tried and proven Waterous. This type is the peer of all apparatus for small or large communities. Being a triple combination affair, it is a chemical engine, hose car, ladder truck and pumper, all in one. In other words, this engine does the work of three engines and does it well.

The chemical arrangement is a great improvement over the old style soda and acid type, there being no delay for unscrewing tank caps and recharging, action being continuous.

Furthermore, as there is no sulphuric acid in the mixture, the liquid does not injure the finest furniture finish, etc., which is quite a saving in an interior fire.

All wells, cisterns, tanks, will be mapped and when a call comes the crew will lose no time in locating their water.

The engine develops thirty miles per hour on the road.

Sunday, the pumper easily threw two one-inch streams (at nozzle) a vertical distance of 110 feet.

The beauty of this engine is its ability to cope with serious fires as well as a small blaze.

When an entire house or building is ablaze, it requires a water pumping engine to conquer the fire foe. Without such an engine an entire city block or row of houses would be consumed, as no other type of engine but this would do any good.

The Sonoma Valley Improvement Club is now in favor of such an engine and when the drive is launched, desires that everyone boost and help secure such an apparatus.

BRILLIANT RECEPTION TENDERED DR. BUTLER

Highly Successful Evening at State Home as Tribute to Esteemed Superintendent.

There was a wealth of sentiment apparent in every phase of the brilliant reception in honor of Dr. Fred Butler at the State Home last Monday evening. It was apparent in the beautiful decoration of the auditorium which willing and artistic hands transformed into a lovely setting in which ferns and holiday red berries were skilfully woven. It was evident in the large attendance of friends of influence and prestige from Sonoma and nearby towns, in the attitude of the institution employees, who were not only visibly affected by the appreciation of their chief, but in addition presented concrete evidence of their regard for him in the form of an Elk's gold card case and chain. Senator Herbert Slater made the presentation, voicing in his sincere and finished style the sentiment felt by the donors of the beautiful gift.

A program of song and monologue was interspersed by dancing to a splendid orchestra from Santa Rosa, among those contributing to the program being Henry Weber, Jr., and Meryl Bish

At the conclusion of the evening's festivities, an elaborate supper was served in the dining room of the Home, the employees having collected a special sum for the banquet which was an elegant one and praised by all who participated.

During the evening Dr. Butler himself responded to a request for a few remarks and expressed his gratitude and thanks for the splendid compliment bestowed upon him.

Cards, social jollity and music terminated with the serving of delicious refreshments by the hospitable host and hostess.

Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. R. Langer, Mr. and Mrs. S. Beinhacker, Mr. and Mrs. J. Andrews, Mr. nd Mrs. H. Burmester nd son, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Martinson, Mr and Mrs. J. Erickson, Mr. and Mrs. F. Joost, Mr. and Mrs. F. Helberg, Messrs. Kreker, Leopold Justi, and Mr. and Mrs. Bolin.

SONOMA OBSERVES THANKSGIVING

Thanksgiving was observed in the churches of Sonoma and in the homes where many relatives gathered to give thanks for turkey or something equally as good. The promises involved in the peace conference at Washington were generally held to be a season for real Thanksgiving this year.

"GYPSYLAND" SCORES BIG SUCCESS

Large Caste Presented Beautiful and Tuneful Production for Benefit of Congregational Aid.

A passing news item of the Congregational Ladies Aid entertainment Friday night of last week could not do justice to the brilliant musical offering "Gypsyland" which was presented with a caste of over thirty gentlemen and ladies under the artistic direction of Mrs. Carrie Burlingame.

It was a romantic story into which many familiar and beautiful strains were woven and presented in a rustic setting of great beauty. The gypsy scene was made realistic with a campfire and colorful costumes of a gypsy group including a facinating gypsy fortune teller, Maude Frazier Champlin. To a mortal, Mr. Cone, she revealed many types of fair ones and he at last claimed a gypsy maiden, Dorothy Bancroft as his bride.

The solos, duets, and choruses were heartily applauded by the large audience present, and Gypsyland was voted one of the biggest successes by local talent put on in years.

The caste was as follows;

Gypsies

Mrs. Chas. Champlin, C. Peck, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Dow, Mr. and Mrs. J. Mc Allister, Frank Giorno, Mrs. E. Burmester, Countess Prestwood.

Over $300 was realized from the entertainment and bazaar which was the most successful in the history of the Ladies Aid Society.

Much credit is due Mrs. Burlingame for her untiring efforts both on the artistic and financial committees of the affair.

OUT-OF-TOWN GUESTS

Among Petaluma guests at the reception to Dr. Butler were Mr. and Mrs. M. Fredericks, Mrs. O. J. Cline, Miss Cline, Mrs. V. C. Mattei, and Mrs. R. Kopf. Mrs. Mattei and Mrs. Kopf are visiting at the Butler home for the Thanksgiving week-end.

IMPORTANT BUSINESS CHANGE

Al Stein, the well known local merchant, will leave Sonoma for a broader business field at the first of the year. He will engage in the wholesale and retail stationery business at Santa Rosa under the firm name of the O'Connor-Stein Stationery Company.

Mr. O'Connor is the well known furniture man of Santa Rosa and with his live wire partner from here he should do a fine business in the stationery and art lines.

RUTH MAXWELL HAS POSITION AT INSTITUTION

Miss Ruth Maxwell, who has been a successful Sonoma Valley prune grower and raiser of Shire horses has accepted a position at the State Farm for delinquent women at Buena Vista. Miss Maxwell has a technical training acquired in Boston in addition to her practical experience at Maxwellton. She will be assistant landscape gardener and livestock expert at the new institution which is now in readiness to receive the unfortunate women to be sent there for rehabilitation.

Miss Maxwell was one of the first practical women farmers in this section. She has long worn her overalls and worked right out in the fields at the Maxwell ranch. She bred draft horses with such success that she won many prizes with her stock at Pacific coast horse shows. In Chicago she was identified with settlement and social service work. The young woman is the daughter of George Maxwell, well known promoter and irrigation expert who now makes his home in the East.

SPEEDWAY CLOSED DURING WINTER

Because of the increased danger of accidents during wet weather, the Cotati speedway is to be closed to all machines from now on until spring, it was announced Monday night following a meeting of the speedway directors.

OUR TRANSPORTATION SERVICE THREATENED

Great concern is felt here concerning the report that the N. W. P. railroad is to withdraw two trains on the Sausalito-Glen Ellen run.

It is also rumored that pending highway improvements the San Rafael-Sonoma Valley auto bus line will ask the Railroad Commission the privilege of temporarily withdrawing its service.

It looks as though Sonoma should petition for the early try-out and adoption of the new interurban California cars on the N. W. P. Just as the city is on the crest of a decided boom we cannot afford to be cut off from the outside world.

AMERICAN LEGION TO GIVE DANCE

Valley of the Moon Post to Give Brilliant Party to Usher in 1922.

Valley of the Moon Post, American Legion, is to give a New Year's eve dance here at Union Hall which promises to eclipse all previous affairs given by the ex-service men. The boys have many novel and highly successful dances to their credit but the party to usher in 1922 will be the best of recent years.

A committee meeting was held this week to make preliminary arrangements for winter activities of the Legion members, many who are too busy during the harvest season now being anxious to revive the pleasant times with their comrades-in-arms, which regular meetings and reunions afford.

An ex-soldiers and sailors banquet after the holidays is also planned by the local Post.

ANNUAL MEETING NOTICE

HOMELESS CHILDREN DANCE PROVES GREAT SUCCESS

Dance Given By Native Sons Thanksgiving Evening Is Well Patronized.

Sonoma Parlor No. 111, N. S. G. W. deserve great praise for the success of their Homeless Children fund benefit dance which they gave on Thanksgiving eve. The dance was a success both socially and financially. The arrangements committee provided splendid music and the decorations of California colors, the state flag and Old Glory were a credit to the members who supervised this part of the party.

There was a generous response to the call for a large attendance to augment the splendid charity fund of the Order, for Sonoma Parlor is deeply interested and annually does its part in furthering the humanitarian efforts of brother members in aiding the homeless little ones of our Golden State.

The Native Sons and Daughters Central Committee on Homeless Children is composed of ten members, three native sons and three native daughters. It is non-sectarian, Catholic, Jewish and Protestant religions being represented on the Board; also the Associated Charities of California.

The first child was placed August 27, 1910. Since that date 2,085 homes have been provided with children; 1,078 formal applications have been filed; 920 of them after thorough investigation have been rejected or withdrawn.

The idea of enlisting the Native Sons and Native Daughters of the Golden West in the cause of the unfortunate little children, originated with the late Fairfax H. Wheelan, a member of Pacific Parlor, No. 10, N. S. G. W. He realized that a fraternal organization with its scattered membership covering a great expanse of territory could be made a standing army ready at all times to protect the children in California and to care for California's future citizens.

The work is not confined to children allied in any way with the Native Sons or Native Daughters or to applicants who are members of the order. No attention is paid to fraternal affiliation of natural parents or foster parents. The Central Committee seeks and finds good moral homes for all children in need of affection and guidance whatever the child's creed, color, nativity, or nationality. Religious principle and beliefs are respected. The children of Catholic parents are placed in Catholic homes and the Protestant children are placed in Protestant homes.

No child is given for adoption until every legal requirement has been met either through properly acknowldged relinquishment of the parents or mother or by judicial decree. The natural parents are at all times helped, advised, urged and even constrained to care for their own children. The workers of the Committee always waiting to be sought rather than seeking the child for adoption. These neglected children are taken from maternity homes, parents, orphanages and through the Juvenile Courts of the state.

The children are boarded in selected family homes until in fit condition physically to be placed in permanent foster homes. The cost of boarding the child, pending placement, including certified milk, and medical care, is about $30 a child for a month.

The child remains on probation, as it were, in the foster home from six months to a year before legal adoption, giving ample time to prove acceptability of home and the proper development of the child.

Foster parents employ their lawyer and the adoption is carried on before the Superior Court at the county seat of the county in which the foster parents permanently reside, the foster mother and father of the child and the child appearing in court.

Anyone wishing to consider adopting a child or boarding a child temporarily may communicate with the Secretary of any Native Son or Daughter Parlor, or with the Homeless Children Comittee, 955 Phelan Building, San Francisco. Telephone Sutter 993.

MORE BAD HIGHWAY

Travel between the gasoline station at the highway crossroad and Embarcadero is almost impassible owing to the recent plowing done by the State Highway Commission for the grading of the Black Point route between Fairville and the Napa county line. Sonoma Valley seems out of luck for good treatment at the hands of the State Highway Commission who in place of completing the Black Point cut-off work will pave to Fairville and merely grade the remainder of the road now impassible owing to preliminary plowing. The Ignacio-Schellville road is also in terrible condition pending the paving now under way.

GOOD NEWS FOR CALIF. CAR STOCKHOLDERS

Announcement will shortly be made of the new plan for the California Car Company which has had all of its stock underwritten and will now proceed to build cars, the necessary capital having been put up.

President Bowen has received his patent rights and has orders for cars on hand so big developments may be expected. The price of stock is to advance the coming week and all offers of common stock bonus withdrawn.

Sonoma Valley stockholders who got in on the ground floor will be pleased to hear this good news.

POSTMASTER GENERAL HAYS RALLIES PATRIOTS

JUST NOW when the United States is making that magnificent move to end war and perpetuate peace, it is particularly fitting that we hear a lot more about peace-time patriotism.

Too many good Americans have only felt their Americanism surging when trainloads of troops were starting for cantonment or battlefield or when a powerful squadron of our cruisers or battleships steamed into the port to remind onlookers of the power behind their flag. Peace plays no less glorious a part in the cycles of time than war, but its press agent has slumbered while the trumpet of war has mobilized followers for centuries. Yet for peace some have sounded a counter-plea which has not fallen on fallow ground. It is proven by the noble work of the Red Cross, a recognized agency for peace as well as war and which is not only mending the wounds and scars left by war, but has countless other activities, noble and humanitarian, which make a nation truly great in peace.

In addition we have the peace-time saving program sponsored by the Savings Division of the United States Treasury Department at Washington and being popularized and accelerated by Postmaster General Will H. Hays. The alert and humanitarian Postmaster General sees the possibility of widespread interest in the peace-time program, that thrift can be encouraged and advertised through the agency of postoffices whether in the imposing edifices of city streets or in a weather-scarred shanty at the crossroad. Government securities, if owned by the masses, will make everyone an interested partner with Uncle Sam and his peace aspirations. In an address before the twenty-third annual convention of the National Association of Letter Carriers in St. Louis, Postmaster General Will H. Hays said:

"To you all, as fellow citizens of our common country, I plead for a patriotism in peace as well as in war. I insist that we have not merely that patriotism born of extremities, which burns in the souls of men only when their country is in danger, not the patriotism which is stirred only by martial music, but a patriotism which moves men to make their country's welfare their own business and every day to realize that we owe to the country in which we live and which moves us to discharge that debt by aiding in every way we can to make and keep conditions right in this country."

The Postmaster General has on several occasions urged the American people to support the government's peace-time savings program by putting their savings in Treasury Sayings Securities as an investment and depositing their surplus funds in Postal Savings.

FARMERS AND PROFESSORS GET TOGETHER ON PEARS

CONSIDERABLE LOCAL INTEREST attaches itself to the Pear Conference which was held in Berkeley this week when representative fruit-growers of California gathered with university experts to discuss the fruit that is making Sonoma Valley rich and famous—Bartlett pears. Anything concerning the betterment of the pear outlook means a lot to this section for it has been admirably exemplified that Sonoma soil and climatic conditions are particularly adapted to pear culture. Not only do Sonoma Valley pears compare in size and flavor to the finest but they have a keeping quality which makes them good shippers, enabling local growers to send the fruit to Eastern markets, where they arrive in good condition and bring top prices.

Even the most skeptical and conservative of growers will find a reassuring note in the announcement that went out with the call for the Berkeley conference for it comes right out and says that the farmers are not going to take a back seat for the college professors to do all the talking. The idea is an exchange of views on pear problems. Here is what the bulletin of the association has to say about it:

The university men who will talk, and some of them have come a long distance at our invitation, are not to have everything their own way. In fact we hope to give these university men new experience. They are teachers during the balance of the term talking to the students who know only what they are told by their teachers.

But these University men have been promised that on November 21 and 22 they will not have it their own way. They have been told that for all their laboratories and experiments they do not know everything, and that some of the things that they do not know will be told them by practical growers, practical shippers, practical canners of fruit, who have to make their living at the game.

In fact, between ourselves, we have put these University men on the program for the same purpose that out on the football grounds they have a "second" team. We are going to use them to practice on. We are going to disagree with them.

Perhaps, once in a while, when we have them winded and gasping for breath, we will agree with them on some minor point.

But we will not sit around for two days, simply absorbing what other folks say, like a sponge soaking up water."

Such a conference should be productive of splendid results.

The mesh of the Small Claims Court is not small enough to catch the wilful deadbeat. He manages to wiggle through and goes back unscathed into the business current where he continues to get on the hook of the unwary. People who try to "get by" without paying their bills are the biggest detriment a community has to overcome. No matter how loud-mouthed they are in their boosting bluff, they are community parasites. The Small Claims Court would be a blessing if an efficient agency in the curtailing of this species.

MARSHAL FOCH has been asked to speak at Berkeley. Speech-making is an ear-mark of genius in the college city, but the memory of heroic deeds suggested by Foch in the flesh would make mere words trivial to most of us.

A PAIR OF TWINS born in different counties—that's county division with a vengeance.

VISITOR FROM DARKEST AFRICA

Edwin Cozzens, recently returned on a short visit to his home in San Jose from his industrial mission work in Kamerun, Central Africa, tells an interesting story of the progress of Christianity and civilization in that land of impenetrable forest and naked savages. Cozzens was born and educated in San Jose and for many years was secretary of the local Y. M. C. A. In 1914, just before the war broke on Europe, he left for his work in the foundation of an industrial mission at Elat, Kamerun, under the West African mission of the United States Presbyterian church. Cozzens was in Kamerun at the time when the British and French wrested it from the Germans. Following this strenuous period he was granted a vacation in 1918 at which time he visited San Jose for a short time and then returned to his mission work again.

The mission station is manned by 12 missionaries who take charge of the various activities of the mission—the boys' and girls' schools in the native and French tongues, the industrial schools and the large church with 5,000 regular members and 12,000 in attendance. In his work at the head of the industrial school, Cozzens is teaching carpentry, machine shop work, ivory carving, grass work and tailoring. The aim is not so much to create production as to so develop and equip the men that they will not go back to their previous condition of laziness.

Leopards, water buffalo, wild boar, antelope and many other forms of wild life abound in the impenetrable jungles. Double seasons and very heavy rains make two crops a year and the natives are consequently lazy. Contrary to the accepted idea of the tropics, Kamerun is not hot. Cozzens says it has never been hotter than 90 degrees and only twice has it got colder than 60 degrees.

White men are better able to live in the country now as the causes of the peculiar tropical diseases are better known, but the inroads of the tse-tse fly causes much discomfort among the natives, and prevents the keeping of any domesticated animals so that produce has to be brought in and out of the station by native bearers or on carts drawn by men.

The northern part of Kamerun is a long stretch of grassy plains, plentifully stocked with game, while the southern part, in which his station is located, is covered with forests, impenetrable with underbrush and a countless variety of plants and trees. The forests are filled with wild game, but it does not bother the settlement to any serious extent.—The San Jose News.

Mr. Cozzens was married to a Sonoma girl, Miss Emma Campbell, who died while in the tropics with her husband on missionary work. The late Mrs. Cozzens' folks now reside in San Jose.

GREEN BRAE TUNNEL TO BE ENLARGED

Word comes from Sausalito that the Northwestern Pacific railroad plans to make a number of improvements on the cutoff from Baltimire Park station to California Park. The Green Brae tunnel will probably be widened.

The old Green Brae bridge is to be replaced with a new steel bridge carrying double tracks.

The company plans to operate more of its trains over this route. Those who know state that the company intends to use the 36 acres of land in East San Rafael for freight yards and for a branch machine shop. The question of abandoning the shops at Tiburon is being considered very seriously. A number of men are employed in the shops at San Rafael at present, and the management finds that with the San Rafael canal in operation that shops in San Rafael will be a big convenience. The company has contracted with the American Dredging Company now dredging the canal, to fill up their acreage in East San Rafael several feet.

There will be a dance and raviola supper at Pancrazi's tonight and a jolly time is in store for all who attend.

GOOD RESULTS FROM COW TESTING

Frank Bresciani, Marin County dairyman living in the Chileno Valley, who joined the testing association last fall, got the full idea of what it means to test and what benefits may be derived from testing.

During 1920 Bresciani milked 123 cows. He sold 15,312 pounds of butterfat, a low average per cow but as good as many dairymen in the county are doing. After testing he weeded out his poor cows, began feeding better, and from January 1, 1921, to June 30, 1921, he sold 13,317 pounds of butterfat, not from 123 cows, but from 107 cows; not in 12 months but in six months.

In May of this year Bresciani erected a silo. He filled it with clover and grasses which had grown during the winter. He began feeding it in June. His cows picked up and produced well. He fed less grain than he fed before he had silage, but he got more milk and butterfat. During June, July, August and September Bresciani produced 1,538 pounds more butterfat than he produced during the same period last year.

Cows which produced 30 pounds of butterfat last fall now produce 40 pounds. Bresciani stated that he was actually feeding 25 per cent less concentrates than he was feeding last year at this time, and his cows are producing much more heavily.

There are few dairymen that can duplicate this example, and the fact that it has been done by Bresciani, who has an average herd and was handling it under average conditions, goes to show that others can do so well.

SOCIAL AFTERNOON AT WOMAN'S CLUB

Friday afternoon of last week the regular November social meeting had for its feature a paper by Mrs. Robt. P. Hill on the Juvenile Court. The interesting subject was followed by an attentive audience of 25 ladies who heard the wonderful work of this Court and its social servicability explained and commended.

Mrs. H. F. Bates acted as hostess serving the usual cup of tea to club members and visitors.

AUTOMOBILE THIEVES WILL BE TARGET

Nine armored automobiles, equipped with machine guns and manned by detectives armed with automatic rifles and shotguns, will tomorrow begin the task of clearing San Francisco county of automobile thieves, according to an official announcement by Chief of Police D. J. O'Brien. The cars, which are Hupmobiles, Hudsons and Chandlers, were officially inspected yesterday by Chief O'Brien, Captain of Detectives Duncan Mathewson, Secretary-Manager D. E. Watkins of the California State Automobile Association, which is co-operating with the Police Department in eliminating automobile thefts, and Sergeant A. T. McQuaide comanding the automobile detail.

Three of the armored cars will be operated in the downtown district, and the remaining cars distributed throughout the city. A 24-hour patrol will be maintained, according to Chief O'Brien. The cars are equipped with bullet proof glass seven-eighths of an inch thick. The armor plate, which protects the gasoline tank, engine and sides of the car, is one-half of an inch thick. Side and back loop holes through which the officers may return the fire of automobile bandits have been provided. Twelve Thompson machine guns, according to Chief O'Brien, have been purchased by the Police Department. Each car will carry one of these weapons, and three will be retained at the Central Station in the event of an emergency. The engines of these cars have been operated continuously for two weeks and in trials made yesterday the cars averaged in excess of 60 miles per hour withing being pushed to their capacity. In appearance it is practically impossible to distinguish the police machines from the regulation cars of these three makes.

RE-INSTATEMENT OF WAR RISK INSURANCE

The attention of ex-service men and women is called to the fact that the time limit within which war risk insurance can be re-instated is drawing near. Government insurance must be re-instated by December 31, 1921.

Under the Sweet Bill of August 9, 1921, every ex-service person is permitted to re-instate his lapsed insurance. If he has no disability, he can re-instate by completing the necessary application forms and by remitting two monthly premiums. All disabled men, having a service disability, may re-instate by complying with regulations.

Forms and detailed information regarding re-instatement and conversion of war risk insurance may be had by inquiring at local Red Cross chapters, American Legion posts, sub-district offices of the U. S. Veterans' bureau, or by writing directly to the U. S. Veterans' Bureau, 240 Flood Bldg., San Francisco, to the attention of the Insurance Section.

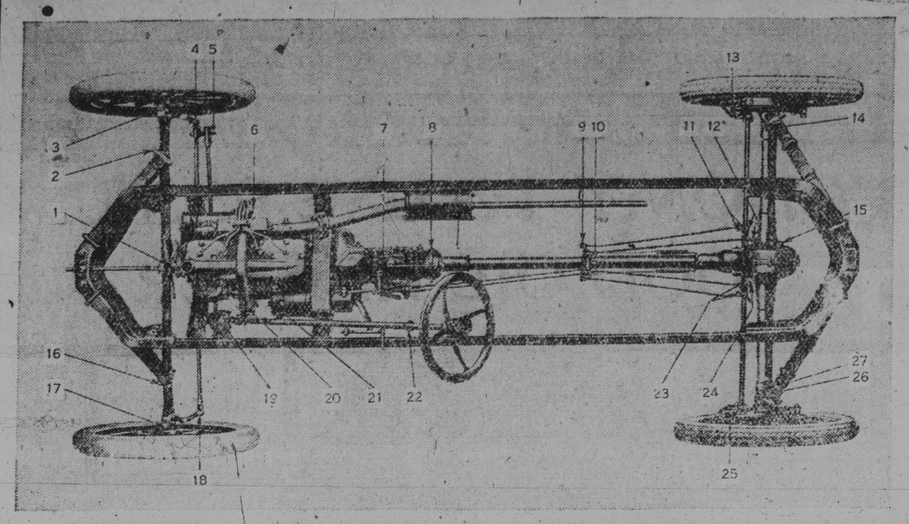
To facilitate the payment of premiums, an insurance office has been opened in San Francisco, which will receive premiums from policy holders. Payments may be made in person or by mail at the above address

CHAUVET RESENTS EJECTMENT AT GLEN ELLEN

George W. O'Donnell, Estella O'Donnell and others ejected Henry Chauvet from their premises while he was installing water meters on his pipelines, according to a complaint filed in the superior court Saturday by Chauvet.

Chauvet claims that in order to determine the amount of water used by his patrons in the Sonoma Valley, he installed water meters on all his lines. While he was putting a meter on the water lines in the O'Donnell place, he claims, he was forcibly ejected from the premises and the meter was confiscated by the defendants.

Since that time the defendants have used about $100 worth of water free of charge, claims Chauvet, but he feels that because of his ejection and the loss of his meter he ought to have about $225 altogether.



OVERLAND
Correct Lubrication Chart

Engine—20; Clutch; Transmission—7; and Universal Joint—8. Daily, or every 100 miles, pour fresh Zerolene No. 5 into crankcase through filler pipe until oil level gauge on crankcase registers "full." Avoid overfilling. Best results will be obtained if the oil level is maintained between "half full" and "full" marks on the gauge. To get a correct reading of the oil level gauge, the automobile should be approximately level and the engine not running. As the oil supply carried in the crankcase is used not only to lubricate the engine itself, but also to lubricate clutch, transmission and universal joint, it is doubly important that the main supply of oil be properly maintained. The correct oil level in both transmission case and universal joint housing will be automatically maintained by the action of the flywheel of the engine as long as there is sufficient oil in the engine crankcase.

At regular intervals, as recommended by the manufacturer, or, in the absence of such instructions, every 750 miles, the oil in the crankcase reservoir should be entirely renewed in the following manner: First, remove drain plugs in bottom of crankcase and bottom of transmission case, allowing all old oil to drain. This should preferably be done when engine is warm, as the old oil when heated will drain faster, and less of it will adhere to the inner surfaces of the crankcase. Next, replace drain plugs and pour four quarts of Calol Flushing Oil into crankcase through filler pipe. Then start and operate the engine under its own power at a moderate idling speed for from one to two minutes, by which time all oil passages and inner surfaces will have been cleansed by the action of the flushing oil. Again remove drain plugs, and when certain that crankcase and transmission case are thoroughly drained, replace plugs and refill crankcase reservoir with fresh Zerolene Oil, as specified. Approximately six (6) quarts of oil are required. Before refilling with fresh oil, the oil strainer should be removed, thoroughly cleaned and replaced. Strainer is located in housing on upper side of flywheel and can be removed by unscrewing two wing nuts which hold it in place. When filling the reservoir through filler pipe, care should be taken that no dirt or other foreign matter is carried into the engine with fresh oil.

Electric Generator—6. Every 250 miles use squirt can to apply a few drops of Zerolene No. 5 through oil hole at rear of Generator.

Electric Starting Motor—21. Every 1000 miles use squirt can to apply a few drops of Zerolene No. 5 through oil hole to forward armature shaft bearing.

Rear Axle Housing—15. Every 500 miles remove oil level plug in rear of housing, and, if no oil runs out, use oil gun to inject Zerolene Transmission Lubricant "3" until it begins to overflow through opening. Then replace plug.

Every 2000 miles remove drain plug from bottom of housing and allow all old oil to drain. Replace drain plug and pour into housing through filling hole two quarts of Pearl Oil (kerosene). Jack up one rear wheel clear of the ground, start engine, and spin rear wheel at moderate speed for about two minutes. This operation will dislodge all remaining old oil, dirt and sediment. Next, disengage gears, stop engine and remove jack. Again remove drain plug, and, after case has been thoroughly drained, replace plug and refill with fresh Zerolene Transmission Lubricant "B" to correct level.

Wheel Bearings. Every 2000 miles remove wheels and wash bearings and hubs thoroughly with Pearl Oil (kerosene). Repack hubs and bearings with fresh Zerolene Cup Grease and replace wheels, being careful to get proper adjustment on wheel bearings.

Spring Leaves. Every 500 miles, or whenever springs squeak, clean off all dirt and old oil and apply a small quantity of Standard Household Lubricant along the edges of spring leaves. A small brush may be used for this purpose, or the oil applied by means of Standard Household Lubricant Handy Can with spout attached.

Oil Cups. Daily, or every 100 miles, fill oil cups on all Spring Bolts, 2, 14, 16, 26, 27; Steering Knuckles, 3, 17; and Cross Steering Rod Pins, 4, 18; using Zerolene No. 5.

Grease Cups. Daily, or every 100 miles, turn down all grease cups two complete turns, refilling cups with fresh Zerolene Cup Grease when empty. Particular attention is directed to grease cups on Fan Shaft, 1; Distributor Shaft, 6; Steering Gear, 5, 19; and Brake Shafts, 10, 11, 23.

General Lubrication. Daily, or every 100 miles, use squirt can to apply Zerolene No. 5 to all joints and small working parts not otherwise lubricated, such as Brake Clevis Pins, 9, 12, 13, 24, 25; Steering Wheel, 22, etc. Care should be taken that oil holes and passages are free from dirt, so that clean oil may reach the surfaces to be lubricated.

Schedule of Lubrication

Daily, or every 100 miles: Engine, Grease Cups; General Lubrication; Oil Cups.

Every 250 miles: Electric Generator.

Every 500 miles: Rear Axle Housing; Springs.

Every 750 miles: Engine Crankcase.

Every 1000 miles: Electric Starting Motor.

Every 2000 miles: Rear Axle Housing; Wheel Bearings.

Note: When daily average temperature is below 45° F., Zerolene No. 3 should be used instead of Zerolene No. 5.

HOW MUIR WOODS GOT ITS NAME

When William Kent gave Muir Woods—of the giant Sequoias—to the Nation some years ago, Theodore Roosevelt, then president, insisted that the new National Park should be known as the "Kent Woods." Kent turned down the suggestion with this personal note to the president:

"So many millions of better people have died forgotten that to stencil one's own name on a benefaction seems to carry with it an implication of mundane immortality, as being something purchasable.

"I have five good husky boys that I am trying to bring up to a knowledge of democracy and to a realizing sense of the rights of the 'other fellow,' doctrines which you, sir, have taught with more vigor and effect than any man in my time. If these boys cannot keep the name of Kent alive, I am willing it should be forgotten."

FIFTY MILLION DOLLARS WORTH OF GRAPES SHIPPED

The last of the grape shipments hving gone East, the Southern, Pacific and Santa Fe Railroad traffic chiefs announced that during the 1921 season they had hauled outside of California for distribution in 6,200 cities and towns, 422,000 tons of grapes, valued in the aggregate at $30,690,000. The railroads handled 28,800 cars, which contained 844,000,000 million pounds of grapes. The latter alone, and not taking into account the local consumption of grapes, means over eight pounds for every man, woman and child in the United States. Prices per ton ranged from $65 to $175. The average price per ton was $120. The shipments this year beat last year's record by 5,300 cars.

Sonoma Valley shipped many tons of grapes this season and despite the statewide crop shortage due to untimely frosts it is evident that over 5,000 more cars were shipped out of the state than last year. Growers recognize in this the growing demand for raisins and grapes to make wine in Eastern cities suffering from the prohibition drought.

HOLLY MAY SOON BE EXTINCT

Popular Christmas Decoration Is Growing Less Bountiful Each Year, According to Reports.

Christmas holly, that merriest and most beloved of all growing bushes, is threatened with extinction, according to a warning sounded by lovers of a red Christmas. Once growing profusely in southern New Jersey and Maryland, it has been swept from those states by the ruthless cutters for the city markets, and must now be sought in the swamps of Virginia and North Carolina, where already the supply is growing less bountiful each year. The Gulf states have been similarly shorn to make holiday for the large cities.

Within another generation, botanists say, holly will be as rare as mistletoe, which used to grow in abundance on the Atlantic seaboard, as far north as Raritan bay, but has now practically ceased to exist as a Christmas decoration. When will the American people learn that the bounty of their fields and woodlands is not limitless?

With sinking hearts nature lovers have long since recorded the disappearance of the delicate trailing arbutus, flower of the Pilgrim maidens, from all woods near large cities. The mountain laurel, which once swept the hills of June with pale pink drifts like naughty clouds running away from the sunset, has now retreated to the remote mountain sides.—New York Tribune.

Miss Zolita Clerici came down from the Ursuline academy at Santa Rosa to spend the Thanksgiving holiday with her parents. Miss Clerici is training to become a teacher.

WARNING

Attention is respectfully called to the fact that merchants and other business men are in the habit of cashing checks for strangers, and after finding that the checks are no good, it is usually from four to ten days before report is made to the Sheriff's office, which makes it almost impossible to find the maker of the check.

I would particularly urge you to NEVER cash checks for strangers unless they can be identified. Bankers will not do it, so why should you?

High School Chronicle

Vol. I SONOMA, CALIFORNIA No. 6

This column will be devoted to High School news, edited and written weekly by the students of the Sonoma Valley Union High School.

SONOMA, NOVEMBER 26, 1921

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

The students at High feel the minstrel show at the Grammar School was a great success. The recitations and songs were very clever and the musicians very talented. The classes were competing to see which one could sell the most tickets. A party was to be the prize. The Juniors were the victors.

We had Thursday and Friday off for Thanksgiving vacation this year. Thursday to eat, Friday to get over the effects and Saturday and Sunday to rest.

Miss Jensen was one of the many spectators of the "big game" between Stanford and the University of California. She reports that it was very exciting and that she was rooting for Stanford.

The basket ball teams have daily practice at the Union Hall. As practice makes perfect, we expect to have a brilliant season.

Monday evening the trustees met and discussed plans for the new high school.

Some of the departments have had some things added to their equipment. The sewing department boasts of two new tables, some chairs and a new sewing machine. The typing department has two new typewriters, and the manual training department has two new benches.

The trustees have closed the deal for the twel[illegible]-acre tract for the high [illegible]

[illegible]gate receipts [illegible]30 people pur[illegible]ld not attend. [illegible]fer that persons [illegible]merely to accom[illegible]modate students. The singers were brought here mainly with the object of providing musical attractions for our people. Good music is necessary for our soul's welfare and we would prefer to see everyone present who so generously supports our undertakings.

CORRECTION OF WEDDING DATE

The wedding of Miss Hilda Herscowitz, niece of S. Rosenthal, will be on December 11, instead of November 20, as erroneously stated in these columns last week. Miss Herscowitz will wed Samuel Halpren. The ceremony is to be performed by a rabbi from San Francisco and the attendants will be Miss Sadie Rotenberg of this place and Miss Beatrice Silverman of San Francisco. The best men will be Dave Rotenberg and Harry Kaplan of Sonoma.

The bride, who is a charming brunette, will wear a white charmeuse wedding gown and her bridesmaids will wear flesh-colored georgette, embroidered in silver.

The wedding of the popular young people will be attended by a big crowd of friends from the bay cities, who will come up to the Rosenthal resort for the happy event.

Miss Rose Pagani of the Sonoma Valley Bank force has been away from her desk the past week or ten days on account of illness. Her physician has advised an operation which she may undergo before returning to her duties at the bank.

SONOMA WEST NEWS
(Communicated)

The dance and refreshment social held at the Watmaugh school house was not so well patronized. We learn that Mrs. Lesher has secured sufficient money to make a first payment on the organ and expects the organ to be delivered soon. With a donation of community songs and the organ, the children are looking forward to a good time.

During the previous school year there was nearly enough pupils to secure the second teacher. On account of a large falling off in the attendance this year, it is expected that about 20 will be the average. Thirty-six pupils calls for two teachers. It is claimed that two teachers will not be had for the next five years in the Watmaugh District, unless something unforeseen hapens. Notwithstanding this fact, there are a few—a very few—who are anxious to bond the District for $10,000 to build an expensive two-room school house.

The tax rate this year is $3.77. With the additional bonds the rate would increase to the tune of $4.24. Then we may also add the bonds for the high school, which will create a very uneasy feeling in the minds of poor Watmaugh taxpayers.

George Campbell is very much opposed to have the District spend money merely for show. Because of the friction he resigned from the trustee board. Mrs. A. Douglass was appointed in his place.

FINE MAP AND BOOKLETS OF CANADA

Comparatively few people appreciate the undeveloped agricultural possibilities on the American continent. Take the Province of Saskatchewan, for example. In that province 384,-156,000 bushels of wheat, barley and oats have been produced in a single year from about one-fifth of the area suitable for farming. The vast acreage awaiting cultivation that is surveyed and the exact location of each quarter-section is shown in an elaborately prepared map just issued by the Natural Resources Intelligence Branch of the Department of the Interior. Ottawa, Canada. Supplementary to this map are booklets giving detailed information by districts concerning the land, the name and address of each owner, nature of soil value of farm buildings, distance from a railway, etc. A considerable number of holders of unoccupied lands in Canada are residents of this state and will therefore be interested in the map and booklets which have been prepared with the most meticulous regard for accuracy and are available for free distribution to readers of this paper upon application to the above mentioned Branch.

WANTS HER NAME CHANGED

Next Monday in the Superior Court of this county, the application of Belle Spindler to resume her former name, Belle Westrope, will come up before Judge Thompson. Mrs. Spindler is the divorced wife of Charles Spindler, formerly of El Verano, both parties having been frequently into court to settle phases of their domestic discord, including property rights.

NEW CLUB HOUSE THRONGED AT OPENING

Sonoma Vista Folks Had Fine Time Last Saturday Night at House-Warming.

The cozy new club house of the Sonoma Vista Improvement Club was thrown open to members and friends last Saturday night and all who entered its portals were the recipient of a fine evening with an abundance of hospitality and good fellowship, which augurs well for the new community center in our thriving suburb. F. Steurmer welcomed all in a neat speech. Messrs. Benedetti, Peters, Mrs. Bosseman and Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Fitzgerald acted as the reception committee. About 100 members and friends were present and when all the card tables had been filled, whist was inaugurated. Valuable prizes were awarded and also many turkeys disposed of to aid the building fund. Mr. B. Chambers, assisted by a bevy of Sonoma Vista belles, conducted the sales, which were exciting and highly successful. Among lucky ones to get turkeys and other fine prizes which had been donated, were Mr. Opperman, Mrs. Decker, Mr. Bosserman, Mr. Rothmuller, Bill Kearney, A. Blomgren, Mrs. Frick, Mrs. Vergonia, W. L. Murphy, Mrs. Steinkamp, Mr. Benedetti and many others.

At the conclusion of the evening delicious home-made cake and coffee were served. Thanks were expressed by the officers of the club for the fine attendance and great interest which everyone has taken in providing Sonoma Vista with its pretty little club house.

TO SETTLE IN THE VALLEY OF THE MOON

Captain and Mrs. Henike who have been coming here as visitors off and on for many years, have decided to locate in the Valley of the Moon. After world-wide travels they have decided that nothing can equal Sonoma Valley as a residence place. The Captain and his charming wife will be a welcome addition to our valley.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

There is an epidemic of mumps at Kenwood.

Mr. and Mrs. Tony Cereghino and family spent Thanksgiving in Petaluma.

The Thanksgiving window display of the Sonoma Valley Shoe Company is typical of the holiday and very attractive.

The many friends of Mrs. W. H. Hanger will be glad to hear that she is better after an acute attack of heart trouble last week.

Carl Dresel's cousin has been named charge d'affaires, to represent the United States in Germany. He is Ellis Loring Dresel, formerly of Boston.

Cecil Hunter, son of Mr. and Mrs. Rae Hunter, goes to Petaluma for saxophone lessons every week. Cecil is already a talented pianist but wants to master the other instrument.

The Redmen will have a social evening after the regular business meeting this evening. The meetings are being largely attended due to the great interest in the state convention of the Order to convene in Sonoma the coming year.

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Hall and two children of Novato will leave about the middle of December for Oklahoma where they will spend the holidys with Mr. Hall's folks. Mrs. Hall's mother, Mrs. Louise McElroy, spent Thanksgiving with the family and will help them get ready for their trip East.

Eddie Dickens, Spec Raines and Kid Walace are training here.

Miss Sadie Dunbar is still in Canada and is enjoying the winter sports there, including ice skating, at which she is becoming quite clever.

Fred Medicus has been granted probation with the understanding that he is to pay $40 per month toward the support of his minor child.

Mrs. Arthur Lowell and five-year-old son are down from the state of Washington, visiting at the home of Supervisor and Mrs. Fred Lowell on the Napa road.

The cement sidewalks just laid by contractor Pete Bacaglia along the frontages of the J. B. Small and Clewe properties are a splendid improvement to the westerly part of our city.

Ex-Mayor Wm. Von Hacht, now of Vallejo, is the proud daddy of a bouncing nine-pound boy. Mother and babe are doing nicely. Mrs. Von Hacht was formerly Miss Dorothy Chase.

A Spanish class of which Mrs. Lulu Vallejo Emparan is teacher has been organized and meets at the home of Mrs. Dora Stofen. A number of local school teachers are taking the course which is conversational Spanish.

Among El Verano fight fans interest is keen in the coming main event between Buch Holley and Henry Barber in Oakland next week. The village is also on edge over the Joe White-Frank Thurston contest at Sacramento on December 2nd.

PARTICIPATED IN GRAND LODGE NIGHT

Sonoma I. O. O. F. and Rebekahs Attend Reception to Grand Lodge From Nevada at Santa Rosa.

Among the 3,000 Odd Fellows and Rebekahs who gathered at Santa Rosa last Saturday night to welcome the Grand Lodge from the state of Nevada were many members of the local lodge of I. O. O. F. and Verdant Degree Rebekahs. The Sonoma delegation participated in the brilliant night given the visitors and it was daylight before they left Santa Rosa for home.

Those who witnessed the ceremonials declare that the Nevada Grand Lodge put on the work in a wonderful manner, the Odd Fellows having gathered in one hall and the Rebekahs in another. Following the exemplifications, dancing was inaugurated, both halls being crowded beyond capacity. A buffet supper was served at midnight and a joyous night arranged for the out-of-state visitors followed.

Among those who went from here were: Mesdames Pauli, Hiser, Stickel, Flieger, McElroy, Rubke, Fiscus, Abele, Hansen, Lindley, Bancroft, Giorno, La Torres; Messrs. Pauli, Vella, Warriner, Al Warriner, Soderberg, P. Bill, Flieger, Rubke, Hansen, Abele, Lindley, Dunn, Stickel, G. Angove, Bancroft, Taylor, Fiscus, La Torres, Giorno, Cooper, Knolle, Wagnon, C. Smith; Misses Revie, McGill, Bancroft, Peterson, Small, Hiser and others.

BLOSS KEECHLER'S NIECE WEDS

Miss Mary Margaret Keechler, the charming daughter of Mrs. J. P. Keechler of Lakeville, became the bride of Egidio Bettinelli, one of the prominent young ranchers of the Lakeville district, at a pretty wedding which took place Monday morning at 7:30 o'clock at St. Vincent's church. The ceremony was performed by Rev Father Kiely.

The church was brilliantly decorated for the occasion with autumn blossoms. Although it was an early hour, a large number of relatives and friends were present.

The bride, a beautiful young woman, was a picture of loveliness in a brown tailored suit and wore a hat to match. She carried a bouquet of white carnations.

The bridesmaid was Miss Josephine Keechler. She wore a one piece blue gown with beaded trimming. A large black velvet hat completed the costume.

Silvia Bettinelli, a brother of the groom, was best man.

Immediately after the ceremony the bridal party left for the home of Mrs. Keechler at Lakeville, where a wedding breakfast was served and the couple happily felicitated. More than 40 were present, including friends from Hollister, Oakland, Sonoma and Santa Rosa.

In the afternoon Mr. Bertinelli and his young bride left for the south where they will spend a few weeks, and on their return will reside at the Bertinelli ranch near Lakeville, in the new home recently erected by the groom.

Mrs. Bertinelli is the oldest daughter of Mrs. J. P. Keechler, of Lakeville. She was graduated from St. Vincent's academy a few years ago.—Petaluma Courier.

ORANGE FLAVORED EGGS REACH LONDON MARKETS

J. H. Barber was present Tuesday at the meeting of the directors of the Poultry Producers held in San Francisco and gave an interesting account of his trip to Europe. He saw eggs that were produced in many parts of the world and under all sorts of conditions. In Holland the people prefer duck to hen eggs. He visited one duck farm where 200 eggs are produced during the year, per duck. The ducks are fed exclusively on raw fish He announced that the shipping of eggs to Europe at the present time is not entirely satisfactory. In the shipments sent to London the eggs were spoiled by having acquired the flavor of oranges which were shipped with fruits in the same refrigerating departments. The eggs were sold in London for what they could bring and the steamship company will pay damages.

Mr. Barber announced that a company is to put on three more ships and one will be used exclusively for the shipment of butter and eggs.—Petaluma Courier.

Half the total profits of the board are to be divided among municipalities of the province on the basis of school population.
